

Index (Draft — Page Numbers to Be Added After Layout)

Note: Sub-entries are organized to help readers locate concepts efficiently once final pagination is available.

A

Accountability

- in governance systems
- mechanisms for public oversight
- role in Libraism

Adaptive societies

- collective resilience
- institutional flexibility

Agency, individual

- economic
- political
- psychological autonomy

Agnotology (manufactured ignorance)

- media manipulation
- state secrecy

Alignment problem

- between citizens and state
- incentive structures

America, political evolution of

- founding ideals
- loss of equilibrium

Authoritarianism

soft despotism regression patterns structural safeguards against (see also Safeguards Against Authoritarian Drift)

B

Balance of power

Libraist view historical precedents

Bureaucratic expansion inefficiency self-preservation tendencies

C

Censorship

state control technocratic suppression

Checks and balances constitutional mechanisms Libraist enhancements

Citizenship

duties of rights of equilibrium model of civic responsibility

Collective intelligence democratic decision-making hive-mind vs. cooperative systems

Collective motivation shared incentives psychology of cooperation

Constitution, Libraist

draft principles rationale and commentary

Cooperation vs. competition economic systems social systems failures of hyper-competition

Corruption

institutional cultural economic

D

Democracy

modern failures of future direction under Libraism non-interventionist applications

Disinformation

methods of deployment role in democratic erosion

Division (political) manufacturing of effects on national stability

E

Economic equilibrium

- distribution of incentives
- systems design

Education

- misinformation resistance
- critical thinking structures

Elite capture

- government
- corporate
- media

Ethics

- in governance
- in public policy

Equilibrium (central concept)

- definition in Librist theory
- social, economic, political balance

F

Fear-based governance

- historical use
- psychological mechanisms

Federal power

- limits on
- risks of expansion

Freedom of speech

- risks to
- protection mechanisms

G

Global relations

- Libraist approach
- non-interventionism
- post-imperial cooperation models

Governance models

- traditional
- Libraist evolution

Group psychology

- mass persuasion
- tribalism

H

Human dignity

- role in policy design
- philosophical foundations

Human nature

- predictable patterns
- relation to power

I

Ideological manipulation

- mechanisms
- media and education

Incentive systems cooperative competitive state-level reform

Individual liberty threats to constitutional protections

Institutional decay warning signs cycle analysis

L

Leadership

moral authoritarian Libraist expectations

Liberty

philosophical foundations modern erosion

Libraism

core principles governance model application to global relations economic structure constitutional framework transition pathways

M

Media manipulation

strategies role in polarization

Militarization

domestic use constitutional questions authoritarian risk

Misinformation

state actors civil society digital ecosystems

N

National identity fragmentation reconstruction under Libraism

Non-interventionism

global policy economic rationale

O

Oligarchy

political capture economic concentration

Overreach, government signs of protective structures

P

Participation, civic barriers mechanisms to strengthen

Polarization

manufactured division incentives behind

Power, misuse of concentrated authority psychological drivers

Propaganda

modern forms technological amplification

R

Regression (authoritarian) warning patterns historical cases

Revolutionary thought historical parallels modern application

Rights, constitutional erosion Liberalist reconception

S

Safeguards

- anti-authoritarian
- structural
- constitutional

Self-governance

- localism
- distributed power

Social contract

- modern reinterpretation
- Libraist balance

Stability

- systemic
- institutional

Surveillance

- state power
- technological risks

T

Technocracy

- benefits and dangers
- conflict with democracy

Transparency

- institutional necessity
- mechanisms to enforce

Tribalism

- psychological basis
- political exploitation

U

Uprisings

historical triggers government misuse

V

Values, civic erosion of restoration through equilibrium

Virtue ethics

role in leadership framework for governance

W

War powers constitutional limits federal abuse

Wealth concentration impact on democracy Libraist redistribution mechanisms (non-coercive)

Z

Zero-sum thinking political conflict

economic implications

Download as PDF