

Bibliography

Selected Works Informing the Philosophy, Ethics, and Structural Foundations of Librism

Classical Philosophy & Moral Foundations

Aristotle. Nicomachean Ethics. Translated by W.D. Ross. Oxford University Press.
— Foundational work on virtue ethics, moderation, balance, and moral purpose.

Plato. The Republic. Translated by Benjamin Jowett. Dover Publications.
— Explores justice, governance, power, and the dangers of imbalance.

Plato. Allegory of the Cave. In The Republic, Book VII.
— Central metaphor for truth, enlightenment, and societal illusion.

Cicero. On the Republic and On the Laws. Cambridge University Press.
— Roman republicanism, civic duty, and the moral limits of authority.

Marcus Aurelius. Meditations. Translated by Gregory Hays. Modern Library.
— Stoic philosophy, self-restraint, leadership, and ethical governance.

Epictetus. Discourses and Enchiridion. Penguin Classics.
— Freedom of the mind as the foundation of all liberty.

Enlightenment Thought & Foundations of Liberty

Locke, John. Second Treatise of Government. Hackett Publishing.
— Natural rights, social contracts, and legitimate authority.

Montesquieu. The Spirit of the Laws. Cambridge University Press.
— Separation of powers and structural safeguards against tyranny.

Hume, David. Essays, Moral, Political, and Literary. Liberty Fund.
— Skepticism of concentrated power and human fallibility.

Kant, Immanuel. Groundwork of the Metaphysics of Morals. Cambridge University Press.

— Moral autonomy, dignity, and universal ethical principles.

American Founding & Constitutional Thought

Madison, James; Hamilton, Alexander; Jay, John. The Federalist Papers.

— Structural design, checks and balances, and warnings against faction.

Jefferson, Thomas. Notes on the State of Virginia and Selected Letters.

— Liberty, decentralization, and skepticism of centralized authority.

Paine, Thomas. Common Sense; Rights of Man.

— Moral legitimacy of governance and the sovereignty of the people.

Patrick Henry. Selected Speeches and Writings.

— Resistance to tyranny and defense of individual liberty.

Samuel Adams. Writings and Speeches.

— Civic virtue, decentralization, and resistance to overreach.

Modern Political Theory & Warnings Against Authoritarianism

Tocqueville, Alexis de. Democracy in America.

— Majority tyranny, soft despotism, and civic erosion.

Mill, John Stuart. On Liberty.

— Freedom of speech, individuality, and limits of authority.

Arendt, Hannah. The Origins of Totalitarianism.

— Structural and psychological roots of authoritarian systems.

Orwell, George. 1984; Animal Farm; Politics and the English Language.

— Power, language manipulation, and institutional decay.

Huxley, Aldous. Brave New World.

— Authoritarianism through comfort, distraction, and conditioning.

Bradbury, Ray. Fahrenheit 451.

— Censorship, intellectual suppression, and cultural decline.

Santayana, George. The Life of Reason.

— Historical memory and cyclical societal failure.

Mencken, H.L. Notes on Democracy.

— Political manipulation and skepticism of mass power.

Twain, Mark. The Mysterious Stranger and Essays.

— Moral hypocrisy, empire critique, and institutional satire.

Economics, Power, and Structural Critique

Smith, Adam. The Theory of Moral Sentiments; The Wealth of Nations.

— Moral economy and balanced markets.

Hayek, Friedrich. The Road to Serfdom.

— Central planning and the erosion of freedom.

Keynes, John Maynard. The General Theory of Employment, Interest and Money.

— Macroeconomic stabilization and structural responsibility.

Griffin, G. Edward. The Creature from Jekyll Island.

— Monetary power, centralized finance, and systemic imbalance.

Rand, Ayn. Atlas Shrugged.

— Individual agency, moral responsibility, and opposition to collectivism
(Referenced critically in contrast to Librism's equilibrium model.)

Systems Thinking & Civilization

Fuller, R. Buckminster. Operating Manual for Spaceship Earth.

— Systems thinking and cooperative sustainability.

Turing, Alan. Computing Machinery and Intelligence.
— Logic, systems, and ethical responsibility in innovation.

Spengler, Oswald. The Decline of the West.
— Civilizational cycles and structural decay.

Toynbee, Arnold. A Study of History.
— Challenge, response, and civilizational survival.

Civil Rights, Moral Resistance & Human Dignity

Douglass, Frederick. Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass.
— Moral courage and resistance to institutional injustice.

King Jr., Martin Luther. Letter from Birmingham Jail.
— Moral law versus unjust law.

Havel, Václav. The Power of the Powerless.
— Truth, dissent, and moral resistance.

Mandela, Nelson. Long Walk to Freedom.
— Reconciliation, balance, and institutional rebuilding.

Snowden, Edward. Permanent Record.
— Surveillance, power imbalance, and transparency.

Supplemental & Contemporary Works

Taleb, Nassim Nicholas. Antifragile.
— Systems that thrive through balance and stress.

Rawls, John. A Theory of Justice.
— Fairness, equity, and institutional design.

Ostrom, Elinor. Governing the Commons.
— Decentralized governance and collective stewardship.

Author's Original Framework

Thomas, J.T. Libraism.

— Original philosophical, ethical, and structural framework for equilibrium-based civilization.

Download as PDF